Dear Lewis:

I just want to drop you a note and thank you again for the fine journey to the Pacific we recently completed.

It was certainly one of the most pleasant, congenial and constructive trips I have ever undertaken. Its success was due in no small part to the company, as well as to the excellent organization of the trip itself. From my point of view it was time well spent as I feel that I acquired a great deal of background which will be invaluable to me in the future.

I just received a very nice note of thanks from the President for the basket of fruits, flowers, etc. which was your inspiration.

With best wishes,

Faithfully,
